Total number of Great Ashby reported crimes per month Dec 2016 to Oct 2020

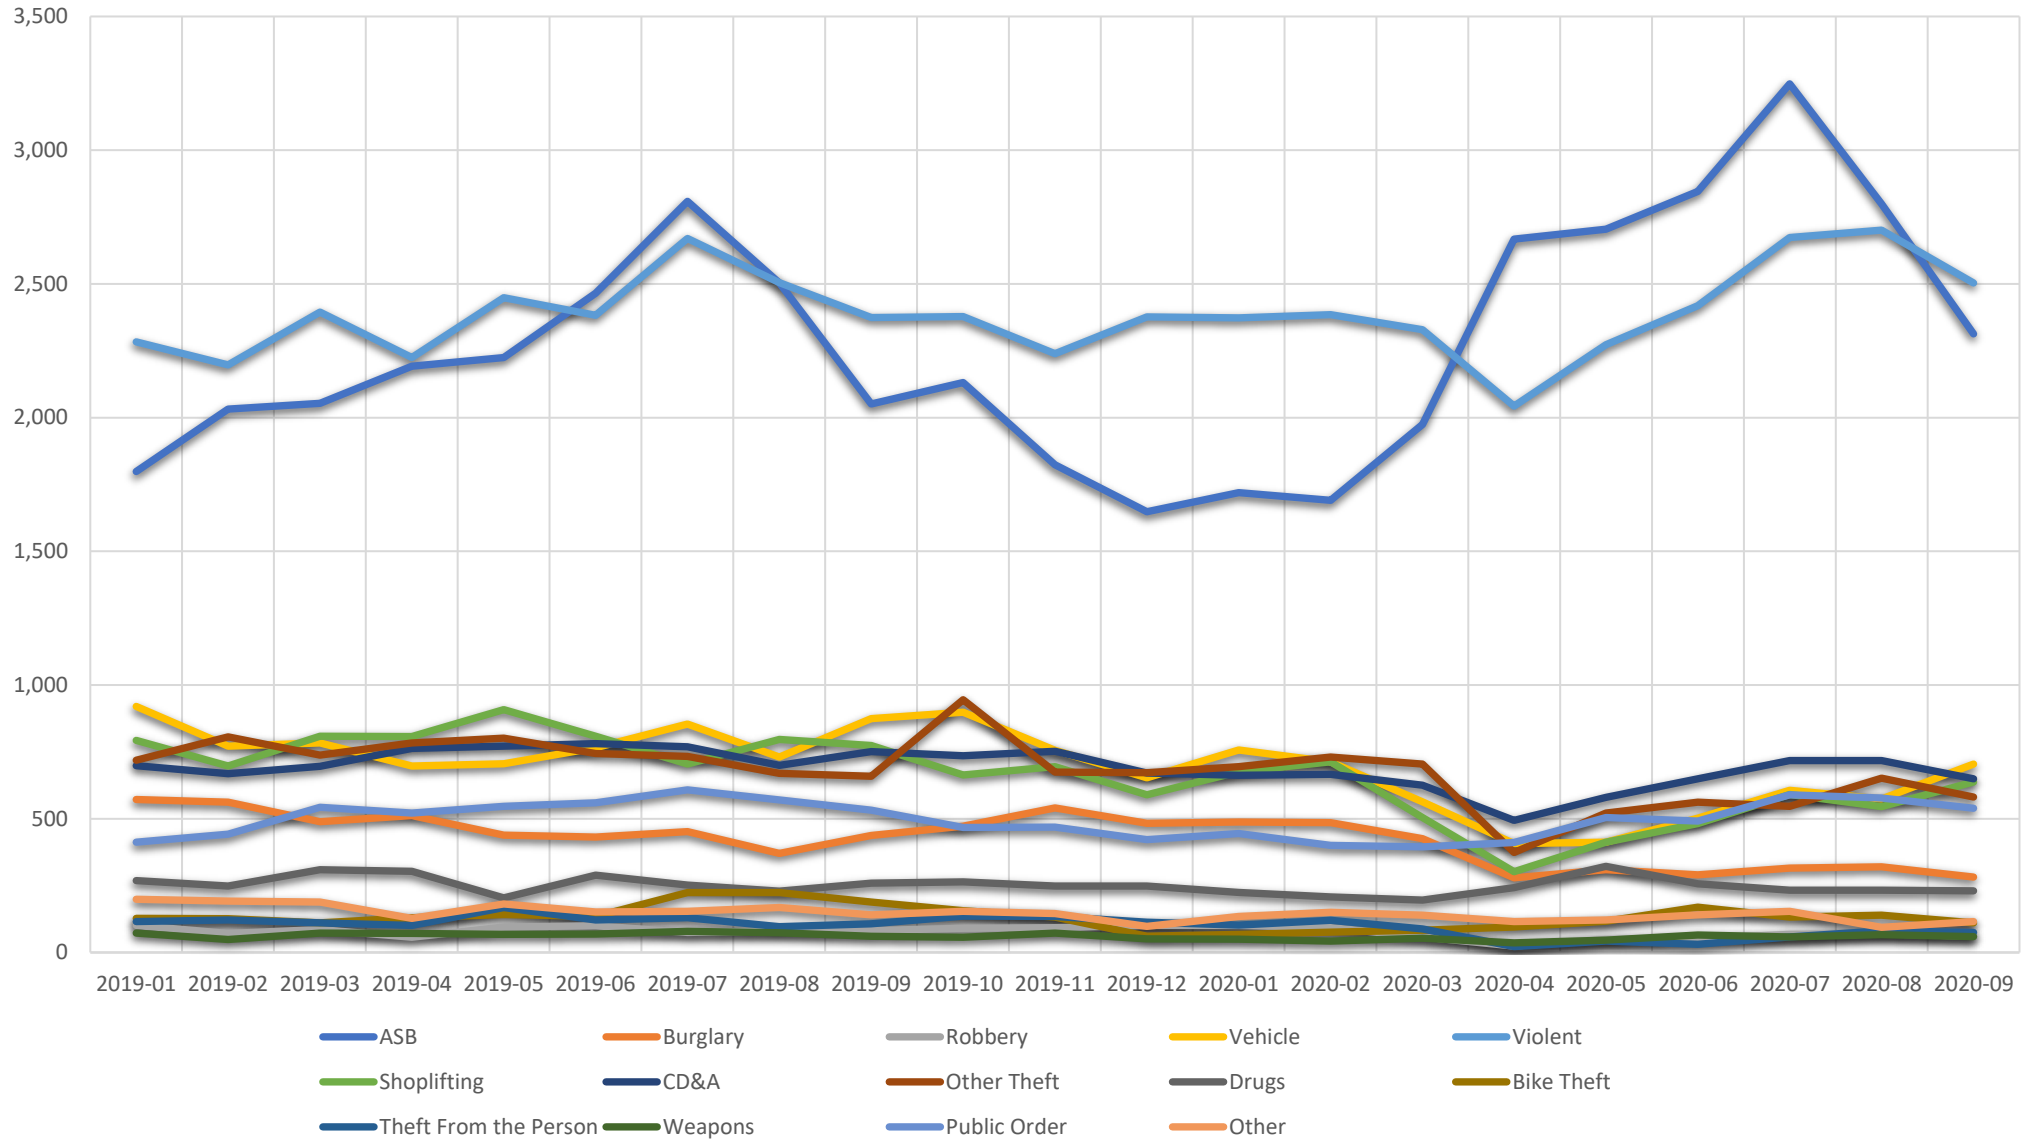

Great Ashby forms part of the Hitchin Rural policing neighbourhood which has historically seen the lowest number of recorded crimes compared to the other 32 Hertfordshire policing neighbourhoods.

In the previous Covid-19 quarter the only crime category to see any significant increase for Great Ashby was anti-social behaviour. Thankfully following the peak noted in anti-social behaviour in June, levels have since fallen back to more typical numbers. Overall the trend for total number of reported crime for Great Ashby remains level, as shown in the above chart. Crime levels on or near the District Park have reduced following the disturbances in June and installation of CCTV by NHDC in July near the park entrance.

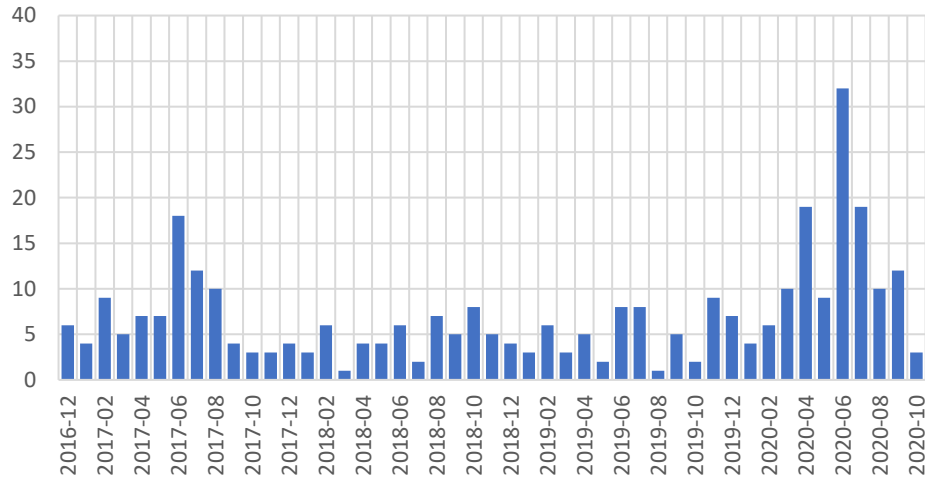

To help visualise the wider Hertfordshire police crime data, the chart on page 3 has been included. The Hertfordshire chart demonstrates mirrored similarities to Great Ashby at County level. Anti-social behaviour for Hertfordshire rose to a peak in June and diminished in the following months. This characteristic impact of Covid-19 has also been experienced country wide this year.
